

As you know, Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing all of its 62 national network affiliates, including ABC, NBC, and CBS stations, to air a full length partisan hack job distorting John Kerry's service and activism during Vietnam the week before the election. It's called Stolen Honor, and is backed by Republican 527 committees and the Swift Boat Liars that have been smearing Kerry with lies despite his heroic war record. This may be the most disgusting display of corporate interference in our democracy to date. Please use your position in our government to shut down this neo-con corporate take-over of our country by the rich and powerful, or I fear we will no longer be a free country.

Respectfully,

Joanna Larson
